

DEFILER

Meaning: Defiler: a person or entity that corrupts, desecrates, or violates something sacred or pure.

1. The artist's latest work was an emotional response to the defiler of nature that society has become.
2. In ancient texts, the defiler was often portrayed as a force of chaos that disrupted the harmony of the universe.
3. Local activists gathered to protest against the defiler of their sacred land, determined to protect their heritage.
4. The story depicted a hero's journey to confront the defiler, who threatened the peace of their once-thriving village.
5. Legends spoke of a defiler that could corrupt even the purest souls, leaving devastation in its wake.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/defiler>