

DEFLAGRABLE

Meaning: Deflagrable refers to a substance that is capable of undergoing rapid combustion with a subsonic speed of reaction, often requiring careful handling due to its potential for explosive reactions.

1. The chemical engineer explained that the compound was deflagrable, requiring careful handling during the experiment.
2. In the lab, we discovered that the mixture was highly deflagrable, prompting us to implement strict safety protocols.
3. Understanding the properties of deflagrable materials is crucial for anyone working in pyrotechnics.
4. The explosive device was constructed with deflagrable substances to ensure a rapid but controlled reaction.
5. She had to wear protective gear when working with deflagrable agents to prevent any accidents during the demonstration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deflagrable>