

DEFLECTED

Meaning: Deflected: caused something to change direction or divert attention away from a particular focus.

1. The soccer player skillfully deflected the ball away from the goal.
2. Her smile deflected attention from her nervousness during the speech.
3. The shield deflected the arrows that were shot from afar.
4. He managed to deflect criticism by focusing on his team's achievements.
5. The laser beam was deflected by the prism and scattered into a spectrum of colors.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deflected>