

DEFOLIATION

Meaning: Defoliation is the process of removing leaves from plants or trees, often resulting in ecological disruption or reduced agricultural productivity.

1. Defoliation in rainforests can lead to severe disruptions in local ecosystems.
2. The agricultural team studied the effects of defoliation on crop yields during the growing season.
3. Climate change is expected to increase the rate of defoliation in many vulnerable habitats.
4. Defoliation caused by pests can result in significant economic losses for farmers.
5. Scientists are examining how defoliation impacts carbon storage in forested areas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/defoliation>