

DEFORCEMENT

Meaning: Deforcement refers to the unlawful withholding or denial of possession or rights to property, particularly in the context of landlord-tenant relationships.

1. The landlord faced legal action due to the deforcement of the tenant's rights.
2. In cases of deforcement, courts often prioritize restoring possession to the rightful owner.
3. The deforcement of property can lead to lengthy disputes and significant financial losses.
4. She was unaware that her actions could result in the deforcement of the lease agreement.
5. The attorney specialized in real estate law, particularly in matters of deforcement and eviction.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deforcement>