

DEFORCEOR

Meaning: Deforcedor: a person or entity responsible for removing illegal structures or enforcing regulations related to land use and environmental protection.

1. The deforcedor was tasked with removing the illegal structures from the land.
2. To understand the role of a deforcedor, one must consider the environmental implications of deforestation.
3. In a debate about land rights, the deforcedor argued that sustainable practices were essential for the community's future.
4. The deforcedor presented evidence that showed the importance of preserving the native ecosystem.
5. Community members rallied around the deforcedor, recognizing their efforts to protect the forest.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deforceor>