

DEFORSER

Meaning: Deforser: a person or entity that engages in the act of deforestation, particularly one that is criticized for harming the environment.

1. The deforser of the ancient forest faced significant backlash from environmental groups.
2. After years of deforestation, the company was finally labeled a deforser by local activists.
3. Many communities are rallying against the deforser who threatens their natural resources.
4. The deforser's actions have led to a devastating loss of biodiversity in the region.
5. Regulations were put in place to hold the deforser accountable for their environmental impact.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deforser>