

DEFRAUD

Meaning: To defraud means to illegally obtain money or property from someone through deceit or trickery.

1. The con artist was arrested for attempting to defraud several investors.
2. She was determined to defraud the insurance company by submitting false claims.
3. The scheme aimed to defraud unsuspecting customers through deceptive advertising.
4. He faced severe penalties after being found guilty of trying to defraud his clients.
5. The organization implemented strict measures to prevent employees from attempting to defraud the company.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/defraud>