

DEFRAUDMENT

Meaning: Defraudment is the act of deceiving someone in order to gain money or property unlawfully.

1. The court found the defendant guilty of defraudment after a lengthy trial.
2. Her elaborate scheme ultimately led to his defraudment of numerous investors.
3. The company faced severe penalties due to the widespread defraudment of its clients.
4. Defraudment can have dire consequences, both legally and financially.
5. He was shocked to learn that his trust had been exploited in a case of defraudment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/defraudment>