

DEFUNCTIVE

Meaning: Defunctive: no longer in existence or functioning; obsolete.

1. The once-thriving factory now stands defunctive, a shadow of its former glory.
2. In the realm of technology, many devices quickly become defunctive as new innovations emerge.
3. The organization was declared defunctive after failing to secure necessary funding for several years.
4. His theories, once revered, have become largely defunctive in light of recent scientific advancements.
5. The defunctive nature of the software meant that users had to transition to a more current platform.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/defunctive>