

DEGARNISH

Meaning: Degarnish (verb): to remove decorative elements or garnishes from a dish.

1. The chef had to degarnish the dish after realizing it didn't match the restaurant's new theme.
2. To prepare the plate for the next course, she swiftly degarnished the previous meal's decorative herbs.
3. Before serving the main course, we need to degarnish the salad to highlight the fresh ingredients underneath.
4. He decided to degarnish the dessert to make room for a more elaborate presentation of the cake.
5. As part of the culinary lesson, the students learned how to properly degarnish a plate to enhance the visual appeal.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/degarnish>