

DEGENERATION

Meaning: Degeneration refers to the process of decline or deterioration in quality, structure, or function, often resulting in a loss of vitality or health.

1. The degeneration of the once-thriving neighborhood was evident in the crumbling buildings and overgrown lots.
2. Scientists are studying the degeneration of brain cells to better understand neurodegenerative diseases.
3. The degeneration of cultural values can often be traced back to rapid technological advancements.
4. As the artwork aged, it showed signs of degeneration, requiring careful restoration to preserve its beauty.
5. Environmental factors contribute significantly to the degeneration of ecosystems around the world.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/degeneration>