

DEHORTATORY

Meaning: Dehortatory refers to expressing disapproval or discouragement, particularly in a manner intended to dissuade someone from a certain action or behavior.

1. The teacher's dehortatory remarks aimed to dissuade the students from engaging in reckless behavior.
2. Her dehortatory tone made it clear that she did not approve of their plans for the weekend.
3. Despite his dehortatory warnings, they proceeded with their risky venture.
4. The article contained dehortatory statements about the dangers of excessive screen time for children.
5. In his speech, the politician included dehortatory messages about the consequences of climate change.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dehortatory>