

DEHORTER

Meaning: DEHORTER: A person who advises or urges against a particular course of action or decision.

1. The dehorter warned the committee against pursuing the controversial project.
2. In his speech, he acted as a dehorter, urging caution and careful consideration.
3. As a dehorter, she believed it was her responsibility to highlight potential risks.
4. The dehorter emphasized the importance of thorough research before making decisions.
5. His role as a dehorter often put him at odds with those eager to take bold actions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dehorter>