

DEHUMANIZE

Meaning: To dehumanize means to deprive individuals or groups of their human qualities, making them seem less than human and justifying mistreatment or violence against them.

1. The relentless propaganda aimed to dehumanize the enemy, making it easier for soldiers to fight without remorse.
2. In order to justify their actions, the regime worked to dehumanize dissenters, portraying them as threats to society.
3. Studies have shown that dehumanizing language can escalate conflicts and increase the likelihood of violence.
4. The documentary revealed how the media can dehumanize marginalized communities through biased reporting.
5. To foster empathy, it is crucial to combat narratives that seek to dehumanize individuals based on their backgrounds.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dehumanize>