

DEIFORM

Meaning: Deiform (adjective): resembling or characteristic of a god; divine in form or beauty.

1. The artist's painting captured the deiform beauty of the celestial figures.
2. In many cultures, gods are often depicted in a deiform manner, embodying perfection.
3. Her deiform qualities made her a natural leader, inspiring those around her.
4. The philosopher argued that the concept of a deiform being transcends human understanding.
5. His deiform presence commanded reverence from all who entered the room.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deiform>