

DEISTICALLY

Meaning: Deistically refers to a belief in the existence of a creator who does not intervene in the universe or human affairs.

1. He approached the question of existence deistically, believing in a creator who remains uninvolved in daily affairs.
2. In her philosophy class, she argued deistically that a higher power could exist without intervening in human lives.
3. Deistically inclined thinkers often emphasize the importance of reason and observation over scriptural faith.
4. The author's deistically inspired novel explores themes of free will and the absence of divine intervention.
5. Many deistically oriented individuals find comfort in nature, viewing it as a reflection of a distant creator's design.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deistically>