

DEJECTED

Meaning: Dejected means feeling sad, disheartened, or low in spirits, often due to disappointment or loss.

1. She felt dejected after receiving the rejection letter from her dream job.
2. The team's dejected faces told the story of their recent loss in the championship game.
3. He sat alone in his room, feeling dejected and unsure of what his next steps should be.
4. After the argument, she walked away with a dejected expression, regretting the harsh words exchanged.
5. The dejected puppy looked up at her with big eyes, hoping for a little love and attention.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dejected>