

DEJERATION

Meaning: Dejection refers to the process of decline or deterioration in quality, vitality, or condition.

1. The dejection of the once vibrant community was evident in the crumbling buildings and empty streets.
2. As scientists studied the dejection of the species, they uncovered shocking truths about its rapid decline.
3. The artist's latest work reflects a deep sense of dejection, capturing the melancholy of lost opportunities.
4. In her speech, she addressed the dejection of trust in public institutions and the need for reform.
5. The film poignantly explores themes of dejection, depicting the struggles of a family torn apart by addiction.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dejection>