

DELAY

Meaning: Delay: a period of time by which something is postponed or made later than originally planned.

1. The heavy rain caused a significant delay in the flight schedule.
2. She apologized for the delay in submitting her report, explaining the unforeseen circumstances.
3. The project's delay was attributed to unexpected technical challenges and resource shortages.
4. Despite the delay at the airport, they remained optimistic about reaching their destination on time.
5. His habitual delay in responding to emails frustrated his colleagues during the busy season.
6. The train experienced a significant delay due to unexpected maintenance work.
7. We apologize for the delay in responding to your email, as we had an unusually busy week.
8. Her flight was delayed for several hours, leaving her anxious about missing the event.
9. Traffic delays can often lead to frustration, especially during rush hour.
10. The project faced a delay because of unforeseen circumstances that required additional resources.
11. The unexpected delay in the project caused frustration among the team members.
12. Due to heavy traffic, we experienced a significant delay in our arrival time.
13. She decided to delay her decision until she had more information.
14. The airline announced a delay in the flight schedule because of bad weather.
15. His chronic procrastination often leads to delays in completing tasks.