

DELIBERATION

Meaning: Deliberation: the process of careful consideration or discussion, especially regarding decisions or choices.

1. The committee reached a decision after a lengthy deliberation on the proposed policy changes.
2. In her deliberation, she weighed the pros and cons of each option carefully.
3. His indecisiveness during the deliberation process frustrated the other members of the team.
4. After much deliberation, they finally agreed to move forward with the project.
5. The judge's deliberation lasted several hours before a verdict was announced.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deliberation>