

DELIBERATIVE

Meaning: Deliberative refers to a process that involves careful consideration and discussion before making decisions or reaching conclusions.

1. The council held a deliberative session to discuss the new policy proposals.
2. In a deliberative democracy, citizens are encouraged to engage in thoughtful discussions before making decisions.
3. The committee's deliberative approach allowed for a thorough examination of the various viewpoints on the issue.
4. His deliberative nature made him an excellent mediator during the contentious negotiations.
5. The article emphasized the importance of deliberative processes in fostering inclusive political dialogue.
6. The committee engaged in a deliberative process to ensure all voices were heard.
7. His deliberative nature made him an excellent mediator during conflicts.
8. In a deliberative democracy, citizens are encouraged to participate thoughtfully in political discussions.
9. The team held a deliberative session to brainstorm potential solutions to the problem.
10. Her deliberative approach to decision-making helped avoid hasty conclusions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deliberative>