

DELIBERATION

Meaning: Deliberation is the process of careful consideration or discussion of a decision or opinion.

1. The committee's deliberation lasted several hours as they weighed the pros and cons of the proposal.
2. After much deliberation, she decided to accept the job offer that had been on the table for weeks.
3. His careful deliberation before responding showed his respect for the opinions of others in the room.
4. The judge's deliberation was evident as he pored over the evidence presented during the trial.
5. In the spirit of open discussion, the team encouraged deliberation on every aspect of the project.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deliberation>