

DELINEATORY

Meaning: Delineatory refers to something that serves to describe, outline, or define distinctions or boundaries clearly.

1. The delineatory features of the map made it easy to identify the boundaries of the national park.
2. In her research, she employed a delineatory approach to clarify the distinctions between the various species of plants.
3. The artist's use of color provided a delineatory effect that highlighted the main subjects of her painting.
4. The delineatory statements in the contract ensured that all parties understood their responsibilities clearly.
5. His delineatory analysis of the text revealed nuances that had previously gone unnoticed by other scholars.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/delineatory>