

DELINATION

Meaning: Delineation: the action of describing or outlining something precisely, often used to clarify distinctions or responsibilities.

1. The delineation of responsibilities in the project was crucial for its success.
2. In her essay, she emphasized the delineation between fact and opinion in news articles.
3. The artist's use of color created a clear delineation between the foreground and background.
4. Understanding the delineation of different political ideologies can enhance meaningful discussions.
5. The map showed a precise delineation of the national borders between the countries.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/delination>