

DELIRIOUS

Meaning: Delirious: experiencing a state of extreme excitement or agitation, often accompanied by confusion or disorientation, typically due to illness or intense emotion.

1. After winning the championship, the team was delirious with joy, celebrating long into the night.
2. The patient became delirious due to a high fever, confusing family members with unfamiliar names.
3. She felt delirious from exhaustion after pulling an all-nighter to finish her project.
4. The children were delirious with excitement when they found out they were going to Disneyland.
5. His delirious ramblings during the illness made everyone worried about his condition.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/delirious>