DELPHINOID

Meaning: Delphinoid refers to a group of marine mammals, particularly dolphins and similar species, known for their intelligence and social behaviors.

1. The delphinoid species exhibit remarkable intelligence and social behavior in their natural habitats.

2. Researchers are studying the delphinoid adaptations that allow these marine mammals to thrive in various environments.

3. The documentary showcased the playful nature of delphinoid creatures as they interacted with each other and their surroundings.

4. During the expedition, we encountered a delphinoid pod, captivating us with their acrobatic displays.

5. Conservation efforts are crucial to protect delphinoid populations from the threats of pollution and habitat loss.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/delphinoid