

DELUDABLE

Meaning: Deludable (adj.): Capable of being deceived or misled.

1. The politician's promises were so grand that many believed he was deludable.
2. In her quest for success, she realized that her idealism made her deludable to false hopes.
3. Despite the warnings, he remained deludable, entranced by the charmer's smooth words.
4. The deludable nature of his trust made him a target for unscrupulous salespeople.
5. She learned the hard way that being deludable could lead to significant personal loss.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deludable>