

DELUDE

Meaning: Deluder: a person who deceives or misleads others, often through elaborate falsehoods.

1. The con artist was a master deluder, weaving elaborate tales to ensnare his victims.
2. In her quest for truth, she realized that every deluder eventually exposes their own lies.
3. Despite his charm, he was nothing more than a deluder, blinding others with false promises.
4. Trusting a deluder can lead to heartbreak, as their facade is often too enticing to resist.
5. She saw through the deluder's facade and refused to be swayed by his insincere words.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deluder>