

DELVER

Meaning: Delver: a person who excavates or investigates deeply, particularly in search of artifacts or knowledge.

1. The skilled delver uncovered ancient artifacts buried deep beneath the earth.
2. As a delver of knowledge, she spent countless hours in the library researching her thesis.
3. His reputation as a delver of secrets made him both respected and feared in the community.
4. The delver meticulously cataloged the treasures found in the long-abandoned cave.
5. With every expedition, the delver hoped to reveal new insights into the past.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/delver>