

DEMANDABLE

Meaning: Demandable: capable of being claimed or required, especially in a legal or financial context.

1. The loan agreement clearly stated that the outstanding balance was demandable at any time.
2. In a competitive market, customer expectations can often be seen as demandable requirements.
3. The company's financial obligations became demandable upon the issuance of a formal notice.
4. His demandable skills in negotiation made him an invaluable asset during the contract discussions.
5. The court ruled that the payment was not demandable until the project had been completed.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/demandable>