

DEMARCATION

Meaning: Demarcation refers to the act of defining or marking the boundaries or distinctions between different areas, roles, or concepts.

1. The demarcation between the two countries is marked by a river that flows through the valley.
2. In the meeting, there was a clear demarcation of roles among the team members to improve efficiency.
3. The artist used bold colors to create a visual demarcation between different sections of the mural.
4. Establishing a demarcation line in the workplace can help prevent conflicts and misunderstandings.
5. The demarcation of responsibilities in the project was crucial for its successful completion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/demarcation>