

DEMARKATION

Meaning: Demarkation refers to the act of setting or marking boundaries or limits, particularly in relation to property or responsibilities.

1. The demarkation of the property lines was crucial to resolving the dispute between the neighbors.
2. In the new agreement, clear demarkation was established to ensure that both parties understood their responsibilities.
3. The artist used bold colors to create a visual demarkation between the different sections of the mural.
4. Demarkation of the zones was necessary to maintain order during the large community event.
5. The researchers emphasized the importance of demarkation in defining the boundaries of their study area.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/demarkation>