

DEMOLITIONIST

Meaning: A demolitionist is a professional who specializes in the dismantling and demolition of buildings and structures, often using controlled methods to ensure safety.

1. The demolitionist carefully assessed the building before planning the controlled demolition.
2. After years of experience, the demolitionist became an expert in safely bringing down old structures.
3. With precision and skill, the demolitionist executed the project, leaving the site clear for new development.
4. The city hired a demolitionist to remove the abandoned warehouse that had become a safety hazard.
5. As a demolitionist, he often had to navigate complex regulations to ensure compliance and safety.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/demolitionist>