

DEMONIZE

Meaning: To demonize means to portray someone or something as evil or malicious, often to discredit or vilify them.

1. Critics often demonize public figures to undermine their credibility.
2. The media tends to demonize certain groups, fueling division and misunderstanding.
3. In the debate over climate change, some opponents seek to demonize scientists instead of addressing the evidence.
4. It's easy to demonize someone when you only see a small part of their story.
5. Demonizing the opposition can lead to a toxic political environment that hinders meaningful dialogue.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/demonize>