

DEMORALIZATION

Meaning: Demoralization is the state of losing confidence, enthusiasm, or morale, often due to setbacks or negative feedback.

1. The team's demoralization became evident after their consecutive losses in the championship.
2. Frequent criticism from management led to a sense of demoralization among the employees.
3. She worked tirelessly to combat the demoralization that had spread through the group.
4. The demoralization of the troops was a significant factor in the outcome of the battle.
5. Despite the challenges, the leader inspired hope and resilience to overcome the demoralization.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/demoralization>