

DENATIONALIZE

Meaning: DENATIONALIZE: To transfer ownership of a government-owned enterprise or sector to private individuals or organizations.

1. The government decided to denationalize several state-owned enterprises to boost competition.
2. After years of debate, the legislature voted to denationalize the telecommunications sector.
3. Many economists argue that denationalizing public services can lead to improved efficiency.
4. The process to denationalize the energy industry was met with mixed reactions from the public.
5. In an effort to attract foreign investment, the country plans to denationalize its mining resources.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/denationalize>