

DENEGATION

Meaning: Denegation refers to the act of denying or rejecting a request, claim, or accusation.

1. The denegation of his request left him feeling undervalued and ignored.
2. In her speech, she emphasized the importance of denegation in addressing false accusations.
3. The lawyer's denegation of the charges was both passionate and convincing.
4. Despite the denegation of his claims, he remained steadfast in his beliefs.
5. Her denegation of the rumor did little to quell the speculation among her peers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/denegation>