

DENIABLE

Meaning: Deniable refers to the quality of being able to be denied or disputed, often in the context of evidence or assertions that can be rejected or contradicted.

1. The evidence against him was undeniable, but his charm made his guilt seem almost deniable.
2. Her talent for music was so profound that it was simply deniable by those who were tone-deaf.
3. In light of the recent findings, the theory became increasingly deniable to even the most skeptical scientists.
4. While some aspects of the situation were up for debate, his contribution to the project was undeniably deniable.
5. The joy he felt in that moment was deniable, as he couldn't help but smile despite the challenges ahead.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deniable>