

DENOUNCE

Meaning: To denounce means to publicly declare something as wrong or evil, often in a formal or emphatic manner.

1. The activists gathered to denounce the government's lack of action on climate change.
2. She chose to publicly denounce the unethical practices of the corporation she once worked for.
3. During the debate, he did not hesitate to denounce his opponent's misleading statements.
4. The community leaders came together to denounce the rise in hate crimes in their neighborhood.
5. In her speech, she decided to denounce the pervasive culture of silence surrounding harassment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/denounce>