

DENTIFEROUS

Meaning: DENTIFEROUS: adjective describing structures or remains that bear teeth or tooth-like features, often related to feeding mechanisms in organisms.

1. The dentiferous structures in the fossil suggested a diet primarily composed of soft-bodied organisms.
2. Researchers found dentiferous remains that indicated the species had a unique approach to feeding.
3. The paleontologist explained how dentiferous features can provide insights into the evolutionary history of certain species.
4. In certain reptiles, dentiferous elements are crucial for understanding their predatory behavior.
5. The discovery of dentiferous fossils in the region has sparked interest in ancient marine ecosystems.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dentiferous>