

DENTILOQUIST

Meaning: A dentiloquist is a performer who creates the illusion of speaking without moving their lips, often using skillful manipulation of the mouth and tongue.

1. A dentiloquist can skillfully manipulate their mouth and tongue to create the illusion of speaking without moving their lips.
2. During the talent show, the dentiloquist captivated the audience with a performance that blended comedy and artistry.
3. Many people were surprised to learn that a dentiloquist can convey emotions and characters just through their voice.
4. The art of being a dentiloquist requires extensive practice and a deep understanding of voice modulation.
5. In the world of ventriloquism, a dentiloquist stands out for their ability to engage the audience without traditional puppet props.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dentiloquist>