

DENTITION

Meaning: Dentition refers to the arrangement, type, and number of teeth in a particular species or individual, often related to their dietary habits and health.

1. Dentition varies significantly among different species, reflecting their dietary needs.
2. The dentist explained the importance of maintaining proper dentition for overall health.
3. Children's dentition undergoes noticeable changes as they transition from baby teeth to permanent teeth.
4. Evolution has shaped the dentition of carnivores to be sharp for tearing flesh, while herbivores have flat teeth for grinding plants.
5. Observing the dentition of ancient fossils can provide valuable insights into the prehistoric diet of species.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dentition>