

DENUDE

Meaning: DENUDE: to strip of covering, foliage, or surface layers, leaving bare or exposed.

1. The storm had denuded the landscape, leaving only bare branches and exposed soil.
2. As winter approached, the trees began to denude, shedding their leaves in preparation for the cold months.
3. The artist chose to denude the figure in her painting, emphasizing the raw beauty of the human form.
4. After the excavation, the workers noticed how the heavy machinery had denuded the area of its natural vegetation.
5. In his quest for clarity, the philosopher sought to denude complex ideas down to their simplest truths.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/denude>