

DENUNCIATORY

Meaning: Denunciatory refers to expressing strong disapproval or condemnation, often in a public or formal manner.

1. The author's denunciatory remarks about the government sparked widespread debate.
2. In her speech, she delivered a denunciatory message aimed at the growing inequality in society.
3. The article contained denunciatory language that criticized the company's unethical practices.
4. His denunciatory tone left no room for ambiguity regarding his stance on the issue.
5. The film's final scene featured a powerful denunciatory statement against systemic corruption.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/denunciatory>