

DENUTRITION

Meaning: Denutrition refers to a state of inadequate nutrition resulting in negative health effects, often due to insufficient intake of essential nutrients.

1. Denutrition can lead to severe health complications if not addressed promptly.
2. The doctor emphasized the importance of nutrition in preventing denutrition among elderly patients.
3. In areas affected by famine, denutrition rates can skyrocket, impacting entire communities.
4. Children suffering from denutrition may experience stunted growth and developmental delays.
5. Efforts to combat denutrition must include education about proper dietary choices and food access.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/denutrition>