

DENY

Meaning: To refuse to acknowledge or accept the truth of something, such as an accusation or claim.

1. She decided to deny the accusations made against her.
2. The company was forced to deny the rumors about its impending bankruptcy.
3. Despite the evidence, he continued to deny his involvement in the incident.
4. It's important to acknowledge your feelings rather than deny their existence.
5. The politician will likely deny any connection to the scandal in his upcoming speech.
6. She chose to deny the accusations made against her, insisting on her innocence.
7. The company decided to deny the request for a refund due to the policy restrictions.
8. Despite the evidence presented, he continued to deny any involvement in the incident.
9. The government may deny access to the report if it contains sensitive information.
10. They couldn't deny the chemistry between them, even if circumstances kept them apart.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deny>