

DEORDINATION

Meaning: Deordination refers to the process or concept of diminishing hierarchical structures in organizations, promoting collaborative and egalitarian approaches.

1. The concept of deordination challenges traditional views on hierarchical structures in organizations.
2. In discussing the effects of deordination, researchers noted a shift towards more collaborative teamwork.
3. Deordination can lead to increased creativity, as individuals are given more freedom to explore unconventional ideas.
4. The deordination process within the community resulted in a more egalitarian approach to decision-making.
5. As businesses evolve, the deordination of rigid protocols allows for greater adaptability in a dynamic market.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/deordination>