

DEPART

Meaning: DEPART: to leave or set off from a place, especially for a journey.

1. The train will depart from Platform 3 at exactly 5 PM.
2. As the sun began to set, the birds started to depart for their winter migration.
3. She decided to depart the meeting early to catch her flight.
4. After a long discussion, they finally agreed it was time to depart from the old plan.
5. He felt a mix of excitement and sadness as he prepared to depart for a new city.
6. She decided to depart for the airport earlier than planned to avoid traffic.
7. As the sun began to set, the last train would soon depart from the station.
8. They were excited to depart on their long-awaited vacation to Europe.
9. When the meeting concluded, he was eager to depart and enjoy the rest of his day.
10. The ship will depart promptly at noon, so passengers should arrive at least an hour early.
11. The train is scheduled to depart at noon sharp.
12. After a heartfelt goodbye, she watched her friends depart for their summer adventures.
13. They decided to depart early in the morning to avoid traffic.
14. As the sun began to set, the last of the boats departed the harbor.
15. His plans to depart for Paris were suddenly postponed due to unforeseen circumstances.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/depart>