

DEPECULATION

Meaning: Depeculation refers to the act of misappropriating or improperly using assets or resources, often leading to financial loss or concern.

1. The depeculation of the company's assets raised concerns among investors.
2. In his latest novel, the author explores the theme of depeculation in modern society.
3. The depeculation process was meticulously documented to ensure transparency.
4. Experts warned that depeculation could lead to significant financial instability.
5. During the debate, the senator highlighted the dangers of unchecked depeculation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/depeculation>